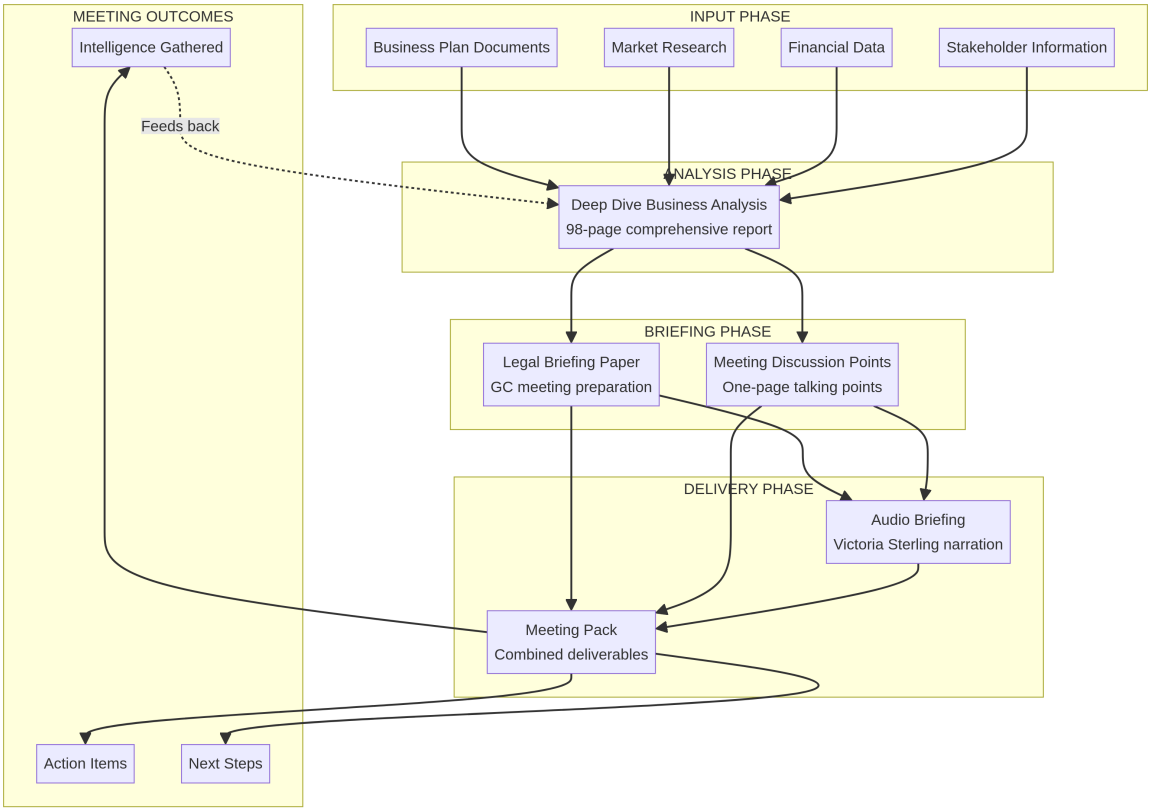
Boundless Telecom — Meeting Preparation Workflow

A repeatable process for preparing stakeholder meetings, generating briefing materials, and capturing intelligence.

Process Overview



Phase 1: Input Gathering

Collect all relevant source materials before analysis begins.

Input Type	Description	Source
Business Plan Documents	Official plans, pitch decks, strategy documents	Founders / Stakeholders
Market Research	Sector analysis, competitor data, market sizing	Internal research / External sources
Financial Data	Projections, actuals, assumptions	Finance team / Founders
Stakeholder Information	Key parties, relationships, interests, history	Due diligence / Public records

Checklist: - [ ] All source documents collected and reviewed - [ ] Key stakeholders identified with roles and interests - [ ] Financial data validated or flagged for verification - [ ] Market context understood

Phase 2: Deep Dive Analysis

Produce a comprehensive analysis document covering all aspects of the opportunity.

Section	Content
Sector Analysis	Market opportunity, trends, competitive landscape
Business Plan Review	Strategy, model, go-to-market, differentiation
Financial Model	Revenue projections, margins, break-even, sensitivities
Corporate Structure	Recommended entity structure, jurisdiction, tax considerations
Risk Assessment	Key risks, mitigations, contract protections required
Stakeholder Analysis	Key parties, interests, potential conflicts

Checklist: - [ ] Deep dive document drafted - [ ] Financial model stress-tested - [ ] Risks identified and mitigations proposed - [ ] Corporate structure recommendations documented

Phase 3: Briefing Materials

Create targeted briefing documents for specific meetings and audiences.

3.1 Legal Briefing Paper

For General Counsel or legal advisor meetings.

Section	Purpose
Business Overview	2-minute summary of the opportunity
Key Parties	Who’s involved, their roles, interests
Corporate Structure	Recommended structure with rationale
Legal Concerns	Key risks with recommendations
Contract Framework	Supply agreement and equity protections
Key Questions	What needs to be investigated, by whom

3.2 Meeting Discussion Points

One-page talking points for stakeholder meetings.

Section	Purpose
Objective	What the meeting should achieve
Discussion Topics	Numbered list of areas to explore
Key Questions	What we need to understand
Approach	How to position the conversation
Key Advice	Strategic guidance for the meeting

Phase 4: Audio Briefing

Generate a spoken briefing for stakeholders to listen to before meetings.

Element	Description
Introduction	Who the briefing is from, purpose, context
Document Summary	What's attached and what's in each document
Meeting Agenda	What needs to be achieved
Key Areas	Walk through the discussion points
Strategic Advice	How to approach the meeting
Close	Next steps, offer of support

Voice: British female (Victoria Sterling), professional, slightly posh, soft southern accent.

Tool: ElevenLabs with Charlotte or Dorothy voice.

Phase 5: Meeting Pack Delivery

Combine all materials into a single meeting pack.

Deliverable	Format	Purpose
Deep Dive Report	PDF	Background and reference
Briefing Paper	PDF	Targeted summary for the meeting
Discussion Points	PDF (1-page)	In-meeting reference
Audio Briefing	WAV/MP3	Listen before the meeting

Phase 6: Post-Meeting Capture

After the meeting, capture intelligence and update the analysis.

Capture	Action
Intelligence Gathered	Update deep dive with new information
Action Items	Log and assign owners
Next Steps	Schedule follow-up, update briefing materials
Risk Updates	Revise risk register if new concerns identified

Checklist: - [ ] Meeting notes captured - [ ] Intelligence fed back into deep dive document - [ ] Action items logged with owners and deadlines - [ ] Next meeting scheduled and briefing cycle restarted
