Chief of Staff Digital Twin Questionnaire

Purpose: To capture your preferences, working style, and decision making patterns so the Virtual Chief of Staff can learn to anticipate your needs and operate as an effective extension of you.

Section 1: Communication Preferences

1.1 Preferred Communication Style How do you prefer to receive information? (e.g., bullet points, detailed narratives, visual summaries)

Your response:

1.2 Update Frequency How often do you want proactive updates from the Chief of Staff? (e.g., daily, twice daily, only when critical)

Your response:

1.3 Preferred Channels What channels work best for different types of communication? (e.g., voice notes for briefings, written for detailed analysis)

Your response:

1.4 Tone and Formality What tone do you expect? (e.g., professional but warm, direct and efficient, conversational)

Your response:

Section 2: Decision Making

2.1 Decision Authority What decisions can the Chief of Staff make autonomously vs. requiring your approval?

Your response:

2.2 Risk Tolerance How do you approach risk? (e.g., conservative, calculated risks, aggressive when opportunity presents)

Your response:

2.3 Information Needs What information do you need to make a decision? (e.g., options with pros/cons, single recommendation, data driven analysis)

Your response:

2.4 Time Sensitivity How do you prioritize speed vs. thoroughness in decision making?

Your response:

Section 3: Working Style

3.1 Daily Rhythm What does your ideal working day look like? When are you most productive?

Your response:

3.2 Meeting Preferences How do you prefer meetings to be structured? What makes a meeting valuable vs. wasteful?

Your response:

3.3 Focus Time When do you need uninterrupted focus time? What should never interrupt you?

Your response:

3.4 Delegation Style How do you prefer to delegate? (e.g., clear instructions, outcomes only, collaborative discussion)

Your response:

Section 4: Priorities and Values

4.1 Current Top Priorities What are your top 3 priorities right now that the Chief of Staff should always keep in mind?

Your response:

4.2 Non Negotiables What are the things you will never compromise on?

Your response:

4.3 Pet Peeves What frustrates you most? What should the Chief of Staff avoid doing?

Your response:

4.4 Success Indicators How do you measure whether a day or week has been successful?

Your response:

Section 5: Stakeholder Management

5.1 Key Relationships Who are the most important stakeholders the Chief of Staff should be aware of?

Your response:

5.2 Communication Protocols Are there specific protocols for communicating with certain stakeholders?

Your response:

5.3 Sensitive Topics What topics require extra care or your direct involvement?

Your response:

Section 6: Personal Context

6.1 Background and Experience What aspects of your background should the Chief of Staff understand to serve you better?

Your response:

6.2 Strengths to Leverage What are your strengths that the Chief of Staff should help amplify?

Your response:

6.3 Areas for Support Where do you most need support or coverage?

Your response:

6.4 Learning and Growth What are you currently trying to learn or improve?

Your response:

Section 7: Feedback and Improvement

7.1 Feedback Style How do you prefer to give and receive feedback?

Your response:

7.2 Course Correction How should the Chief of Staff know when they are off track?

Your response:

7.3 Continuous Improvement What does continuous improvement look like for this working relationship?

Your response:

Instructions: Please complete each section with your responses. The Chief of Staff will use this to calibrate its approach and continuously improve its service to you. This is a living document that should be updated as your preferences evolve.

Document Version: 1.0 Created: 18 January 2026 Classification: Confidential